ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Upgradation of knowledge and skills is an uncompromising factor even in this novel coronavirus pandemic situation, which has mobilized an emergency transition to an online learning platform. Thus a faculty development program on "Computer Architecture and Security" is to be conducted from 15th March 2021 to 17th March 2021. This will provide a deep knowledge into the execution of computer instruction at the micro-level and emphasizes the need for the protection of the computer system and information from harm. The sessions will be handled by John Jose from IIT Guwahati and Anil Namboothiri from IIT Hyderabad, the proficient resource persons from the top-notch institutions.
